

Summer 2019 Graduate Research Interns Position Description

Human Impact Partners seeks 2 summer research interns to support research projects with our nonprofit organization in Oakland, California. Applications due by March 2, 2019.

Hourly rate: $20/hour

Start date: Summer 2019 (flexible start and end dates)

Time commitment: Full-Time, for approximately 3 months

Location: Oakland, CA

About Human Impact Partners

We conduct policy-focused, innovative, and strategic research that evaluates health impacts and inequities to support targeted campaigns and movements for social change. And we amplify the use of that research through advocacy and by mobilizing the health community to use their voice and expertise in support of social change. Our research and advocacy efforts primarily focus on economic security, criminal justice, and equitable built environment domains. For more details about HIP and our approach, visit: www.HumanImpact.org.

Working alongside HIP staff, the Research Intern responsibilities include:

- Conduct literature reviews and collect data
- Analyze data using quantitative and qualitative research methods
- Write up research findings for reports, issue and policy briefs, and other materials
- Translate HIP's research findings into materials for public health professionals to advocate around social determinants of health, including criminal justice, economic security, immigration, housing, and other policies
- Opportunities to develop content for HIP's communications channels, including website and social media platforms (Twitter, Facebook, Medium channels)

Qualifications

- Working towards a master's degree in public health or other field with connection to social policy, such as public policy, city planning, or social welfare
- Strong research, writing, communications skills
- Understanding of social justice, health equity, and social determinants of health
- Ability to work both independently and as part of a team
- Commitment to collaboration and a sense of humor

How to Apply

Please submit the following to researchintern2019@humanimpact.org by March 2, 2019:

- A cover letter
- A 1 to 2 page resume
- Contact information for 3 references
- A brief writing sample (1-3 pages) highlighting research skills

Applications are due by March 2, 2019. Interviews (in-person or online) are expected to take place starting in mid-March 2019 and successful applicants will be notified of hiring decisions by early April 2019.

Equal Opportunity Employment

Human Impact Partners is an Equal Opportunity Employer. We strongly encourage people with lived experiences related to the issues we work on (such as criminal justice, economic security, immigration), people of color, people with disabilities, and LGBTQ+ folks to seek employment or board opportunities with us. We do not conduct criminal background checks on candidates.
